

The Kingdom of Swaziland

Africa's "last truly traditional kingdom" still practicing traditional marriage ceremony and mystical rite of Kingship. The King of Swaziland, King Mswati III, is the cornerstone to the maintenance of traditional culture and customs.

It has beautiful and varied landscape, mountain ranges, steep canyons, waterfalls and nature reserves filled with abundant wildlife, rare species and rich birdlife.

A night or two in Swaziland is a must on your way to or from The Kruger National Park to KwaZulu Natal.
